

The Villager Summer 2023

The young and the not quite so young celebrate the Coronation of King Charles III
NOW IT'S YOUR TURN ON HM's OFFICIAL BIRTHDAY
SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 2023

Dobwalls United Church members and guests raise a glass to the King!

HELLO, and welcome to the Summer 2023 edition of The Villager magazine which celebrates the Coronation of King Charles III and Queen Camilla and highlights lots of the great things happening in our community.

Apart from Coronation news — more school activities, who's doing what on Dobwalls Parish Council, the annual charity Beer & Cider Festival, the latest in Sean Jackson's popular parish walk series, the annual litter pick, DIG's plant sale, Dobwalls Short Mat Bowls Club, the plight of the memorial hall, the new pitches at Dobwalls Football Club, the thoughts of Cornwall Councillor Jane Pascoe, What's On at the memorial hall and the church and two never-seen-before in The Villager spectacular drone photos by Brian Clark. Enjoy! The Villager editor Michael Taylor

THE chairman and vice-chairman of Dobwalls Parish Council, Cllr John Dunn and Cllr Tracey Kitto, have been unanimously re-elected at the annual meeting of the parish council to serve another year in office. The positions are unpaid but involve a massive amount of their time and effort on behalf of the village of Dobwalls and the wider parish.

The council clerk, Linda Coles, is stepping down after more than eight years in the role. At the end of the May council meeting Cllr Dunn presented Linda with a card, signed by all the councillors, and flowers to mark her retirement, although she will be staying on until the new clerk has settled in. Contact details for the new clerk will appear on the council website <https://www.dobwallspc.org.uk> and The Villager Facebook page www.facebook.com/thevillagerdobwalls

DOBWALLS CORONATION CELEBRATIONS — FINGERS CROSSED!

THIS was the weather at Dobwalls Football Club ground in the early afternoon of the Coronation Bank Holiday Monday, the day the village and parish were due to celebrate with a family fun day. And it only got worse, with torrential rain later in the day. So, it was a wise decision to postpone the festivities. But, now they're back on — Saturday, June 17, the King's official birthday!

Dobwalls Parish Council and the football club have re-organised the event at the club, starting at 11.00am.

Council chairman Cllr John Dunn says: "It would have been a total washout if we'd gone ahead on the Bank Holiday Monday. So, it's fingers crossed for the 17th of June. It will be another special day for everyone to enjoy and remember, after we celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee."

Commemorative "gold" coins will be presented to the children of the parish whose parents or carers need to bring along proof of an address in the parish. The coins will be given out on a "first come first served" basis.

The club is hoping enough teams will come forward — men, women, boys, girls, mixed — so a walking football tournament can be held.

Children's entertainment will include a bouncy castle and inflatables. Plenty of hot and cold food will be available and the football club bar will be open.

Anyone who would like to help out on the day should contact Andy Yeatman or Hayley Champion at the football club or parish councillor Brian Clark.

DOBWALLS PRIMARY SCHOOL CORONATION CELEBRATION

THE school enjoyed a super Coronation Celebration. Children arrived in a plethora of red, white and blue and spent time learning historical facts about the Coronation.

In Year 2, children wrote a recipe for the perfect King! And all the pupils solved puzzles with historical facts to develop their knowledge and understanding. The day ended with a wonderful afternoon tea party.

Headteacher Kathryn Pipe says: "The weather wasn't as sunny as we had hoped, but we still celebrated in style! Thank you to our amazing parents for all the food donations. We also organised a competition to create a Coronation picture. We hope you enjoyed seeing them on the fence outside of school."

They were so shocked at the litter they collected, Sennen in particular! She thought around 80% of it could actually be recycled.

Loveny singing their hearts out

The school enjoyed a fabulous afternoon being entertained by the Loveny Male Voice Choir. Kathryn Pipe says: "Their singing was amazing, filling our hall with a sound we'll never forget! We joined with them to sing Trelawny and Cornwall My Home. It was brilliant!

"We are so thankful to the members of the choir for giving up their time to come and sing to us."

SPECIAL CORONATION SERVICE AT DOBWALLS UNITED CHURCH

THE Coronation Service in Westminster Abbey was reflected in a unique event in the church the day after the crowning of King Charles III and Queen Camilla. Church members were joined by guests from Dobwalls Parish Council, led by the vice-chairman Cllr Tracey Kitto, Cornwall Councillor Jane Pascoe and her husband Paul and representatives of Dobwalls Football Club and Dobwalls Into Gardening.

The service was led by Sheri Sturgess, a reader at St Martin's Parish Church, Liskeard, and included segments from the service in the abbey. The lessons were read by the church senior steward Doris Taylor and her husband Michael. Sheri gave the sermon and also dedicated and blessed a bible rest acquired by the church for the altar table to mark the Coronation.

The organist was Paul Fergus. The flowers were by steward Pat Rowe and the special decorations under the illuminated cross were gifted by steward Sandra Beeke. Property steward Dave Merry pressed all the right computer keys to operate the monitor under the Coronation flag but, as Dave admits, remembering the famous Morecambe & Wise/Andre Previn sketch, "not necessarily in the right order!!"

The cork has yet to be located and Mr Wilton, still suffering from hand and arm muscle strain, will be billed for any damage to the church roof!

Here's the cake lady, with Sheri Sturgess on the left, out of her clerical robes and in royal red, white and blue.

PARISH CLERK LINDA COLES RETIRING AFTER MORE THAN EIGHT YEARS

AS mentioned on Page 2, Linda is retiring. Parish councillors took the opportunity to recognise her contribution to the council's many successes over the years at the conclusion of the monthly May council meeting.

The council chairman Councillor John Dunn, on behalf of the council, praised Linda's years of service to the parish: "During your term in office you have helped us achieve a great deal. You were heavily involved in getting Wainhomes to allow us to divert the money from its intended project on The Green to allow us to purchase the land for the football club and the Dobwalls Jubilee Community Field project.

"You worked together with our Cornwall Councillor Jane Pascoe to win the Community Infrastructure Levy grant of £30,000 to enable us to create the project, which has been a major benefit to Dobwalls.

"I have been in the chair for most of your custodianship of the parish and it has been a pleasure to work with someone who has the knowledge of how Cornwall Council functions and the legal implications, should we ever contemplate making a wrong decision!"

Cllr Dunn added that Linda had been with the council right from the very start of its long journey to create the Dobwalls and Trewidland Neighbourhood Development Plan and he expressed the hope that the council would finally get the plan over the line in the very near future.

John concluded: "Dobwalls thanks you for your outstanding service to the parish and it's sad to see you retire as our clerk, but we know this was the right decision for you at this time. So Linda, thanks again for everything, and I mustn't forget to mention the two new village bus shelters you helped us obtain!"

Linda responded: "I have enjoyed my time as your clerk, but I know this is the right time for me to step down. However, I shan't be giving up my involvement with local councils entirely as I will be continuing as clerk to two smaller parish councils."

Linda has agreed to carry on for a transitional period to assist the new clerk in familiarising themselves with the role and getting to know the area and the councillors.

TWO DAYS OF GREAT BEER CIDER, MUSIC AND FOOD

THE Dobwalls Beer and Cider Festival team is thrilled to welcome Garry and Zoe to the village as the new tenants of The Highwayman pub. One of the first things they did was to confirm they'd be very pleased and excited for the traditional annual festival to be hosted again in the pub beer garden.

The dates are - Friday and Saturday, July 21 and 22. And the target is to top the £5000 donated to Cornwall Air Ambulance after last year's event.

One of the organisers, Andy Harwood, says: "Garry and Zoe are a dynamic duo with a passion for great beer and an infectious enthusiasm for the hospitality industry, which has been demonstrated in their running of the Jolly Sailor in Looe. We're incredibly excited about the future of The Highwayman under their leadership, and we can't wait to see what they have in store for us. They're sure to bring a fresh perspective and a wealth of experience to our 'local'."

Time for a drink, a chat or a dance - indoors or out

This year's festival, the 12th, promises to be bigger and better than ever before, with a fantastic line-up of live music, mouth-watering food and, in particular, a huge selection of Cornish real ales and ciders.

Andy, who's been helping to organise the event since year one, adds: "There will be something to suit every taste, with plenty of variety for beer and cider enthusiasts, but also all of the great food and drink normally available in the pub.

"We've started to book music acts, both in the marquee and also in the pub. The line-up promises to be a real treat for music lovers, with 'Mind Your Manners' all set to top their barn-storming headline set from last year — and other acts to be announced soon."

Organising the festival involves a lot of hard work behind the scenes and the festival team would really appreciate any help that you can give. Erecting the marquee is due to take place on Sunday July 16 at 10.30am in the pub garden.

Andy Harwood says: "It's always good to have more hands to make the task easier and we are also looking for sponsors for the beers and ciders. This will give you admission for four people for each day, as well as the satisfaction that you will be supporting a great cause."

Sean Jackson's Walk for the Summer of 2023

SEAN writes: As the good weather is coming, I thought I would focus this walk on making the most of the lovely countryside and Public Rights of Way (PRoW) we have around the village of Dobwalls. The route was also chosen to highlight the fact that two bridge crossings have recently been repaired.

Route 5—Little Trebugey Loop.

Distance—4.25 km.

Time—1.30 to 1.45 hours.

Difficulty—Moderate, with a couple of steep slopes to and from the bridges.

Pram friendly—As the route is mainly through farmland it is not suitable for prams.

Additional Information - www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-countryside-code/the-countryside-code-advice-for-countryside-visitors is a useful guide to enjoying our lovely countryside.

The Public Rights of Way (PRoW) used on this walk are 607/1, 607/7, 607/9 and 607/11

More information about the PRoW used on this walk can be found on the Cornwall Council Interactive map.

So, from our usual starting point of The Highwayman pub, make your way south across the car park to the path which leads you down to The Green on Treheath Road. At Treheath Road turn right (west) up to the Pendray Gardens junction.

At the T junction go right then first left up to the alley which leads on to Tremabe Lane. This section of the walk is in fact a recognised Cornwall Council PRoW.

Turn left and head south towards Bridge End Farm where sometimes you may be able to pick up some free range eggs at the entrance. Cross the bridge in to the farmyard. Remember that this is someone's property, so please respect this. Here you should look right and see the footpath marker on the gate post. Once through the gate you are also now entering working farmland so please make sure you close any gates you pass through.

The PRoW is in a south-westerly direction across the field but, at the time I walked it, there were crops growing so, following the normal practice, it is best to walk around the side of the field. Walk all the way round the field until you are opposite the gate where you find a Cornish stile. Be careful crossing, as it can be quite difficult.

Walk down the hill to the West Looe River and follow the tree line until you find the bridge crossing. From the bridge climb up the hill towards the tree line. There is a good view of Dobwalls from the top of the hill.

At the top you will find a gate to pass through. Keep the fence line to your right, as this will guide you to Caduscott Farm. At the farm the footpath markers show where you should go through the property. Pass through the farm and continue on this lane and follow it until you come to Little Trebурgey.

Just after you pass the houses at Little Trebурgeу you will see the entrance to Trebурgie Farm which, if you follow walks in The Villager, you'll know the path has been used before. The route is clearly marked so keep a good lookout for the markers and it should be easy to navigate through the farmyard. The path at the farm comes out on working farmland, so again you can use the fence line to guide you to the next gate.

At this gate head north east to the next gate. You should pass through this gate and to your left there is yet another gate you need to use. From this point you can clearly see to the north the wooden gate of another recently repaired bridge crossing.

After crossing the bridge look up the hill and look for the metal rails of the railway bridge, another useful aid to get to the gate you need to use to get you on to Beneathway under the bridge. Follow this road all the way up to the Five Lanes junction on the main road. Turn right and make your way to The Highwayman for a well deserved favourite post walk drink, whatever your choice might be. Of course, you've guested it, as always mine's a pint of Guinness!

Be safe and please remember and respect the Countryside Code. It would be great to get your feedback on the walks and the state of other PRow around the village. And, of course, please send any suggestions for future routes to The Villager.

WHAT A LOAD OF RUBBISH—BUT NOT AS MUCH AS LAST YEAR!

THE annual Dobwalls Parish Litter Pick took place in incredibly inclement weather conditions, but that didn't dampen the spirits of the tough group of volunteers who met in the public car park in the centre of the village to get on with the job in hand.

The chairman of Dobwalls Parish Council, Cllr John Dunn, had been out earlier doing his bit because he was unable to join the main group later in the morning.

The event was organised by the council's vice-chairman Cllr Tracey Kitto, who had mixed reactions to the outcome of the pick: "We collected lots of litter and rubbish, but no where near as much as last year, so perhaps that's an indication people are becoming more aware. We will see what happens next year! But, well done everyone."

Dobwalls Into Gardening BIG PLANT SALE

DESPITE the cold Spring, which has slowed down the germination of some plants this year, members of DIG managed to contribute a great selection of perennials and vegetable plants, as well as some house plants, for the gardening club's annual plant sale.

Colin Standerwick also supported DIG by bringing in trays of popular annuals to give a good display and to complete a lovely variety of plants.

Club secretary Sue Gruzelier says: "Together with the home made cakes, raffle and refreshments, members were able to raise some extra funds for the club. First prize in the raffle, a scented rose bush, was won by Colin!"

For more information about the club go to the Facebook page "Dobwalls into Gardening" or phone 01579 320 4117.

DOBWALLS SHORT MAT BOWLS CLUB AIMING TO COME TOPS

IT'S the summer season and the club will be entering a number of tournaments, in particular the summer league. The club was runner-up last year and chairman John Worth says the players are hoping to win it this year.

John adds: "The club was started about 28 years ago, so we thought we had better invest in the future with the purchase of a new mat!"

The club held a charity fund raising tournament to raise money for the Cornwall Blood Bikes and, with the help of 12 other clubs from across Cornwall, raised £550. Here's club treasurer Graham Sleep presenting the cheque to Ian Butler from the Cornwall Blood Bikes.

The club meets in Dobwalls Memorial Hall Sunday, Monday and Thursday evenings and anyone is welcome. Just walk in or email club secretary Gerry Tizzard on dob-wallssmbc@gmail.com or follow the club on Facebook "Dobwalls short mat bowls club".

HELP! WE NEED SOME BODIES

DOBWALLS Memorial Hall desperately needs people in the village and parish to come forward to ensure the future of this vital facility in the very heart of the parish and our community.

Alison Butterworth, the treasurer of the hall trustees, has appealed several times in The Villager for new trustees to come forward. The end result, so far — ZILCH! Basically, if volunteers don't come forward, the hall's very existence will be in jeopardy.

So, Alison, yet again, is asking for your help, as some of the trustees and volunteers are getting on a bit: "We are in need of new members to help and support the hall. You could become a trustee, or just offer to help at events, or get involved in hall maintenance days.

"It would be great to have some new blood on board and, in the coming year, bring in new trustees to eventually take over one or two of the key roles. In particular, we need people with experience of Excel spreadsheets and Microsoft Word. Office admin and accounts experience would be very welcome."

A trustee needs to be able to offer just a few hours each month, probably about 10, to help with non-professional maintenance work and hall events.

To become a trustee you simply have to email or provide a statement about yourself, mentioning any special skills you may have which could benefit the hall.

Alison says: "Being a trustee is not a hard job and it can be very fulfilling."

So, call Alison on 01579 320152 or email butterworth.alison61@gmail.com

THE six-week public consultation period on the Dobwalls & Trewidland Neighbourhood Development Plan ended on May 31. Any relevant comments will be taken on board. An independent examiner will review the plan and any changes the examiner requires will be made before the people on the electoral roll for the former Dobwalls and Trewidland Parish Council area get their chance to vote on the plan. It's hoped a referendum will be held within the next few months. A majority in favour of the plan is needed for it to become an important part in Cornwall Council's decision-making on the future of the plan area, particularly in relation to residential development.

NEW PITCHES FOR DOBWALLS FOOTBALL CLUB

HERE'S the lay-out of the extra pitches to be created in the field across the lane from the existing football ground.

At the request of Cornwall Council planners, the club has located the pitches, a training area and equipment storage as far away as possible from the residential properties you can see on the left of the map. The area in the bottom righthand corner of the field is the “community pitch” for everyone’s use.

The field was bought by Dobwalls Parish Council and gifted to the football club to provide sports and recreation facilities. The work to do that can start, now Cornwall Council has granted planning permission for the change of use of the agricultural land.

Club secretary Andy Yeatman says: "It's all systems go now, as work will be required to flatten the ground and prepare the grass to the standard needed. It's likely that these pitches will be used mainly by the different age groups playing for Dobwalls Juniors."

Your Cornwall Councillor reflects on the Civic Year just gone

JANE Pascoe writes: The past year has been unusual, to say the least. A unique and interesting time which has included the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, the death of our beloved Elizabeth II and the Coronation of King Charles III and Queen Camilla in one single Civic Year.

For each of these occasions, sometimes sad and sometimes joyful, my thanks go to the sterling work, compassion and generosity of the residents in our rural communities and the extra duties undertaken by the parish clerks and councillors for these historic events and, of course, in particular, Dobwalls Parish Council and its people, playing a most important part in our history.

Dobwalls has aspired to some interesting projects which have come to fruition during this council year, including working with Cornwall Council, I have been pleased to be able to help facilitate the transfer of the car park next to the pub car park from Cornwall Council to Dobwalls Parish Council as a community space. So, it will forever remain, a car park for the use of the public!

And I'm pleased that my Community Chest Fund has contributed to groups in the parish — the short mat bowls club, the walking football group, the football club itself and Dobwalls United Church for its successful warm space project.

I am currently requesting that the bus service to Derriford Hospital is resumed. Following the lack of passengers, due to Covid, the service was discontinued. I would very much like to hear from anyone who would use this service from The Parade in Liskeard, either as a patient, visitor or employee.

Potholes, surface repairs, road safety, fly tipping and planning enforcement issues are ongoing work, but if anyone wishes to report an item, they can do so on the Cornwall Council website Cornwall.gov.uk/Report.

Finally, I wish you all a glorious summer with your families and friends and I shall hope to see you at the Coronation Celebrations at the football club on Saturday 17th June, the King's official birthday.

Dobwalls Parish Council

www.dobwallspc.org.uk

All council meetings are open to the public, but it's seldom anyone turns up, unless there's a planning application you don't like, or want to support, or a particularly contentious issue. However, in the absence of any controversy, the council will continue to do its job as it has always done—endeavouring to ensure the best for the village of Dobwalls, the surrounding parish and all its inhabitants.

The agenda for monthly meetings is posted on the council website

<https://www.dobwallspc.org.uk>

And, the agenda is on the council notice board in the village Of course, you can attend and speak at most council meetings which are held on the third Wednesday of each month in the club-house at Dobwalls Football Club. Normal kick-off time is 6.30pm and it's usually all done and dusted by around 8.30.

The next three meetings are:

JUNE 21, JULY 19 & AUGUST 16

You can contact any parish councillor if there's some issue you'd like to raise or offer your opinion on.

Or, you can get in touch with the retiring parish council clerk Linda Coles, who is staying in post for an interim period to hand over the reins to the new clerk.
